

I urge you not to grant Bell South's petition to stop regulating broadband service. I value our independent ISP provider, Sonic.net and their very personal service. I do not want to have my service replaced by a large, impersonal company that could never match the level of service I receive from Sonic.net. They are a local company, and I prefer to support a local business. Please do not take this option away from us. Thank you.